Marks & Klein Reforms as Klein Fournaris Bleiman, Reinforcing Its Position as a Preeminent Boutique Business and Franchise Law Firm

New Name Reflects Firm's Growth, Leadership, and Continued Commitment to Excellence in Franchise Law

Marks & Klein, the highly respected law firm known for its deep expertise in business and franchise law, is proud to announce its rebranding as Klein Fournaris Bleiman. The new name reflects the firm's evolution, expanded leadership team, and continued focus on delivering sophisticated legal counsel to businesses.

Klein Fournaris Bleiman builds on the strong foundation established by Marks & Klein while signaling a forward-looking vision that recognizes the significant contributions of its partners. The firm remains dedicated to serving business owners nationwide with tailored, strategic legal solutions.

"As Klein Fournaris Bleiman, we are honoring our legacy and well-deserved reputation while embracing the future," said Justin M. Klein, Partner. "Our new identity reflects both who we are today and where we are headed—continuing to provide top-tier legal services, guidance and advice."

Partner Dean Fournaris added: "I am extremely excited by this combination and profoundly appreciative of my clients for their support. Professionally, I grew up in a franchise law boutique. It was full of first-rate lawyers, at various points in their franchise law careers. Within our practice area, we were great, individually and collectively. We had a tremendous amount of fun practicing law and servicing our clients on a very high level and as a coordinated team. Forming this franchise and business law firm, while at the same time joining an existing and successful group of business-minded attorneys, is my way of going back to the future. I look forward to working as part of a highly effective team and practicing collaboratively with fantastic colleagues to deliver excellent client service and results."

"This is more than just a rebranding of the firm name and the addition of Dean to our incredible team. It's a profound commitment to the future of the firm, our team and the success of our clients. I look forward to this new chapter with immense enthusiasm and believe this uniquely positions us to deliver even greater value for our clients," remarked Andrew P. Bleiman, Partner.

Klein Fournaris Bleiman will continue to operate with the same teamwork, values, and dedication that clients have come to expect and trust, ensuring a seamless transition under the new name.
